Chatham County Police Department Responds to Overnight Shots Fired Incident

Chatham County, GA (February 24, 2021) – The Chatham County Police Department responded to a shots fired incident at a residence early this morning.

Officers were called to the 30 block of Tide Water Way around midnight for a report of multiple shots fired. Officers found a vehicle in the driveway of a residence with multiple bullet holes, but were unable to make contact with anyone inside the home. Officers were then approached by a man outside the home who was carrying a gun. The man refused the officers commands to drop the weapon, pointed the gun at the officers, and then went inside the residence.

While officers were on scene attempting to speak with the man inside the residence, a woman arrived on the scene and identified herself as the man's fiancée. The woman refused to cooperate with police who were trying to get information in regards to the incident, and became disorderly. Eventually, another family member arrived on-scene who assisted police officers in talking the man out of the residence, and he was taken into custody without further incident.

Further investigation revealed that a neighbor's home was also hit by gunfire during the shots fired incident. No one was injured by the gunfire.

After speaking with the parties involved, officers determined a domestic dispute had occurred at the residence earlier in the evening.

Chatham County Police Officers arrested 30-year-old Wesley Warren Iocovozzi and charged him with felony aggravated assault against a law enforcement officer, felony criminal damage to property-2nd degree, misdemeanor simple battery-family violence, and misdemeanor reckless conduct. Chatham County Police Officers also arrested 27-year-old Ashley Noel DeLoach and charged her with misdemeanor obstruction and misdemeanor simple battery-family violence.
