

CHATHAM COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT

295 Police Memorial Drive, Savannah, GA, 31405

(912) 652-6920 FAX: (912) 652-6974

Chief Jeffrey M. Hadley

Assistant Chief Terry Shoop

Assistant Chief Julie Tolbert

UPDATE: Detectives believe Christina is a runaway. However, she still needs to be found so we know she is safe and taken care of. The Chatham County Police Department continues to urge residents to keep an eye out for Christina, and report any information regarding her whereabouts by calling 9-1-1 or Crime Stoppers, where tipsters are anonymous and may be eligible for a cash reward. Crime Stoppers' number is 912-234-2020.

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

May 18, 2021

Chatham County Police Department Searching for Missing Pre-Teen

Chatham County, GA (May 18, 2021)—The Chatham County Police Department is searching for 12-year-old Christina Cochran, who has not been seen since Monday evening.

Cochran is a black female who is approximately 5'4 and weighs 140 pounds. She was last seen in the 5100 block of Garrard Avenue around 7 pm on Monday, May 17, 2021.

Christina was last seen wearing a pink and black shirt with flames, jeans with green lettering down the sides, and a long pony tail. She should also have a pink backpack and Nike shoes.

She could possibly be in the areas of Garrard, Westlake, or Savannah Gardens.

Please call 9-1-1 if you have any information about Christina's whereabouts.

###

Media Contact:

Betsy Nolen
Public Information Officer
Chatham County Police Department
912-675-2949