Chatham County Police Department Arrests Man After Stand Off

Chatham County, GA -- (April 2, 2022) — The Chatham County Police Department has arrested a man after an early morning standoff.

Chatham County Police Department Officers were called to an apartment complex in the 100 block of Prince Royal Lane for a report of shots fired. Officers spoke with victims who said there had been an argument inside the apartment and the suspect grabbed a gun. Once outside, the victims reported hearing gunshots. The victims were not injured.

The suspect refused police officers attempts to have him leave the apartment, and the Chatham County SWAT team was called in. After several hours of negotiations, the suspect exited the apartment and was taken into custody. There were no injuries reported to anyone involved in the incident.

Chatham County Police Department Officers arrested 41-year-old Damien Williams and charged him with three counts of aggravated assault.
