Assistance Available for Chatham County Residents Affected by Hurricanes Debby and Helene

For Immediate Release

Chatham County, GA (February 3, 2026) - The Chatham Emergency Management Agency is encouraging Chatham County residents affected by Hurricane Debby and/or Hurricane Helene to apply for available individual assistance. The Coastal Empire Disaster Recovery Committee (CEDRC) is providing support to residents who experienced structural damage from these storms.

While FEMA assistance and insurance may have covered some losses, this program is designed to help address remaining unmet needs. Eligible residents may apply by completing a survey and case intake form, which collects contact information, details about the damaged dwelling, and information regarding any previous assistance received from FEMA, insurance providers, or other sources.

Residents can access the survey/case intake form at:
<https://www.cognitoforms.com/CEDRC1/CEDRCCaseIntake>

For questions about the application process or assistance with completing the form, residents may contact CEDRC at:

Email: cedrcgaltr@gmail.com
Phone: 912-742-9084
Hours: Monday-Friday, 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

The Coastal Empire Disaster Recovery Committee (CEDRC) is a collaborative network of nonprofit organizations, faith-based groups, and local government agencies dedicated to disaster preparedness, response, and long-term recovery. Formed in the aftermath of Hurricanes Matthew and Irma, CEDRC has helped hundreds of households recover from disaster impacts across the Coastal Empire.
