Chatham County to Host a Meeting for Elected Officials on the Coastal Empire Transportation Study

Chatham County, GA (September 4, 2023)– The Chatham County Board of Commissioners will be hosting a meeting on the Coastal Empire Transportation Study for elected officials throughout the County. Georgia Department of Transportation Commissioner Russell McMurry will be providing the update. The meeting will be Wednesday, September 6, 2023, at 12 noon at the Coastal Botanical Gardens.

The study is designed to assess the roadway network in Bryan, Bulloch, Chatham, and Effingham Counties. Due to continued growth of the Port of Savannah industry and the increase of truck traffic on area roads, it is important to explore options to improve mobility and connectivity for the four-county region. To view the report, please visit www.dot.ga.gov and search "CES Final Report".

WHEN: Wednesday, September 6, 2023, at 12 noon

WHERE: Coastal Botanical Gardens, Andrew Visitor & Education Center located at 2 Canebrake Road, Savannah, GA 31419

WHY: Presentation of the Coastal Empire Transportation Study by GDOT Commissioner Russell McMurry
