Supporting Agencies Available to Assist Residents Affected by Tropical Storm Debby and Ogeechee River Flooding

For Immediate Release

Chatham County, GA (August 22, 2024) - Chatham County residents impacted by Tropical Storm Debby and the flooding from the Ogeechee River can find relief and support from several local agencies dedicated to helping those in need. The Resource Center at Compassion Christian Church is still open and serves as a central hub for many of these resources. Residents who have already visited the Resource Center are encouraged to return, as new resources are now available.

Resource Center address: Adult Ministry Center of Compassion Christian Church, 50 Al Henderson Blvd. Address verification is a required for services

Operating hours:
Thursday, August 22nd: 7am-9am and 4pm-8pm
Saturday, August 24th: 7am-9am and 4pm-8pm

Residents are encouraged to visit the center to access some of the services provided by the following organizations:

- Catholic Charities USA
Beginning case management for those with longer term needs. Qualified individuals are those whose primary homes were damaged and did not have flood insurance.
- Coastal Empire Disaster Recovery Committee (CEDRC) and Crisis Cleanup
