Emergency Outdoor Warning Siren Test This Week for Georgia's Fall Severe Weather Preparedness Day

Chatham County, GA (November 4, 2019) - Wednesday, November 6, 2019, has been declared Georgia's Fall Severe Weather Preparedness Day. There will be a state-wide Severe Weather Exercise/Tornado Drill at 9:30 am. The Chatham Emergency Management Agency will conduct their monthly test of Chatham County's Emergency Warning Siren System at 9:30am in support of the drill. This will replace the regularly scheduled siren test. We invite all businesses, schools and individuals to participate in the state-wide drill.

WHAT: Emergency Outdoor Warning Siren
WHEN: Wednesday, November 6, 2019, 9:30 AM
WHERE: Chatham County

DETAILS:

At 9:30 AM Wednesday, Chatham County residents will hear a one minute emergency tone from the various sirens located throughout the county.

In the event of poor weather conditions such as rain or overcast weather, the siren test will be rescheduled.
