Greenbriar, Chatham County To Hold Press Conference on Greenbriar Childcare Center Renovations, Re-opening

For Immediate Release

Chatham County, GA (March 20, 2026) - Chatham County will join the Greenbriar Children's Center Board of Directors to announce plans to renovate and re-open Greenbriar Childcare Center at 3 p.m. on Wednesday March 25.

Greenbriar will showcase their plans for the property at 3709 Hopkins St. at the event, which will include vibrant, active spaces designed to serve children and families in the community. Attendees will have the opportunity to learn more about future initiatives and discover ways to support Greenbriar's ongoing mission.

The first major initiative is the opening of Greenbriar Childcare Center in 2026. This facility will provide quality childcare services to children 6 weeks to 4 years old, continuing Greenbriar's legacy of nurturing young minds and supporting families.

Through the partnership between Chatham County and Greenbriar's Board of Directors, Greenbriar Children's Center will continue to serve the needs of children and families in Savannah.
