NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Chatham County, GA (October 16, 2025) - Chatham County will host a ribbon cutting for the new Airnasiums at L. Scott Stell Park on Saturday, October 18, 2025 at 10 a.m. This marks completion of the first phase of recreational improvements planned for L. Scott Stell Park. The ceremony will take place during the County's annual Fall Festival, a free, family-friendly event hosted from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

This phase of L. Scott Stell Park's redevelopment includes significant upgrades to enhance recreation and community use. The County has added four new basketball courts, four new tennis courts, and ten new pickleball courts, all covered under three new Airnasiums equipped with lights and fans for comfort and extended play. In addition, visitors will enjoy four new covered pavilions, upgraded parking, lighting, and landscaping throughout the park.

Improvements will continue beyond this phase. Chatham County is currently constructing new public water and sewer systems to replace the park's aging wells and septic tanks. Additionally, replacement of the walking trail around the pond will begin October 20th.

Following the ribbon cutting, attendees are invited to enjoy the Salute to Service Walk at 11 a.m. and explore the Fall Festival, which will feature hayrides, games, a kid zone, vendors, food trucks, and the Chatham County Police Mobile Unit on display and open for tours.
