From the office of the Chatham County Board of Elections for immediate release:

The Chatham County Board of Elections have an important announcement concerning several polling place changes for the June 9th Election. On March 14, 2020, Georgia's Secretary of State moved the Presidential Preference Primary due to COVID-19 restrictions. The Board of Elections immediately began a review of all 92 polling locations in anticipation that some locations might be unavailable. Many polling places were uncertain, but we worked together to secure 80 of our normal polling locations. We also worked with several entities to obtain the list below of temporary polls for locations which are unavailable:
