Chatham County Parks and Recreation Close Several Facilities

Chatham County, GA (March 18, 2020) – The Chatham County Anderson-Cohen Weightlifting Center and the Aquatic Center will close March 19, 2020, at 8pm and remain closed until further notice. County leadership and the Parks and Recreation department sought guidance from the Department of Public Health (DPH) earlier today regarding keeping the facilities open. DPH recommended closure of those facilities to help curb the potential spread of the Coronavirus.

All parks and the Henderson Golf Course remain open. The Parks and Recreation department will continue to evaluate each facility and if there needs to be an closures to facilities, like restrooms, at any of the County recreational facilities.

Governing sports bodies that play at Chatham County fields have elected not to practice or play games at this time.
