Chatham County residents can schedule an appointment online or check current wait times at any Chatham County Tax Commissioner's Office by visiting tax.chathamcountyga.gov. For added convenience, homeowners can view, print, or pay property taxes online with an e-check, debit or credit card.

If a homeowner's mortgage company pays property taxes directly through an escrow account, the homeowner does not need to make a duplicate payment. One third of all Chatham County property tax payments are made through mortgage companies or their designated representatives. A copy of the property tax bill is still mailed to the homeowner twice a year to keep for their files, even if their mortgage company pays the bill.

Citizens are invited to visit tax.chathamcountyga.gov to take advantage of convenient online services or to contact the Chatham County Tax Commissioner's Office at (912) 652-7100 or tax@chathamcounty.org with any questions.
